TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

Raleigh, October 22d, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bountifully of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine has visited our State: Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Thursday, November 6th, 1873.

A PROCLAMATION,

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of the [illegible] temporary suffering.

I, therefore, [illegible] day, the twen[illegible] ber next, [illegible] time [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] dence of [illegible] enty-seve[illegible] U. S. G[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] State [illegible] southern sisters ought to emulate. There are some facts which ought to be considered in this connection, before men who wish to be honorable in politics as in anything else, take Georgia for a model.

Under the constitution of that State no one is allowed to vote who has not paid taxes for the year previous to the time of voting. At a glance, it can be seen how many avenues to fraud this qualification opens. The voter is required to show his tax receipt. The average negro does not know a tax-receipt from any other and he perhaps may have brought the wrong one. He may offer the right one to the Inspector, and while it is being examined a dash of the pen changes the date; then it is good for nothing. The date may purposely have been changed by the Democratic tax collector, to meet the election day with a falsehood on its face. Sometimes the taxes have not been paid, owing to ignorance of when and where to pay. In fact it is difficult to enumerate every detail of dishonesty which this constitutional provision permits.

When election day comes many Republican voters are told by their Democratic employers that the wages for that particular day's work are doubled or trebled; that the work must be done. Perhaps failing in this, the laborers are told that if that day is lost that their employer must look for steady hands who are not always running off to elections, and that if they will go, they must find another employer. [illegible] resolute [illegible] tells them [illegible] votes for the wrong men.

After the election is over, and it is found that a Republican majority is counted at a precint, the returns somehow or other fail to come in at the proper time. Another artifice to throw out Republican votes, is to omit or introduce a middle initial in a candidate's name, or some other designed informality rejects the votes for a Republican. Even after a Republican ticket may be elected, these diligent Democrats usually succeed in preventing or postponing the introduction into office of the chosen men, or by local and class legislation strip them of their power.

It is talked to make the people of other Southern States acquainted with the practical workings of this infernal machinery of oppression. Indeed, it may be safely believed that it has to a great extent been tried in Virginia during the late canvass and elections. It is nothing to say that those who are fradulently deprived of their votes have their remedy under national legislation. The enforcement act is almost a nullity. What negro in the rural districts, or white man either, has such a disregard for his life, as to invoke Federal Courts to sustain them in their rights? Should such a course be commenced, if all other inducements should fail to arrest it, the complainant would find himself beyond the help of any earthly tribunal.

The remedy is education. Education fostered by the general government, and not under the sole control of those very individuals who are the active agents in bringing about the state of things which education is intended to remedy.

Congressional Back Pay.

[illegible] or rather all political parties in [illegible] denounce what they cle[illegible]

[illegible] wi[illegible]

[illegible] gress with [illegible] man[illegible] ing, we cannot remember [illegible] refused, or refunded, [illegible] decent, we sub[illegible] ent. Such [illegible] to the others which [illegible] opportunity is offered to do so. We think the legislation was wrong, we do not approve of the action of the President in signing the bill, but it is not making the matter better to call it a larceny, when it is not. Therefore, in the name of decent and courteous journalism, we protest against calling it the "back pay steal," any more.

A novel feature of the election in New York city on Tuesday was that at each voting place was a box for contributions for Memphis. A calculation that ten cents from each voter would aggregate ten thousand dollars, is made; and high expectations were held that the amount would be much larger. However, we do not think that much was realized, as the voters who had money were probably placing it where it would do more good—in their opinion.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The International Bridge, at Fort Eric, Canada, was formally opened for traffic yesterday. Several passenger and freight trains crossed.

— Five out of nine of the leading business houses in Manchester, Iowa, are managed by ladies, and managed well, too. The name of the town should be changed to Womanchester, out of compliment to the ladies.

— Barnum emphatically deserves the title of the Great. The Times of the 4th says: A new feature will be introduced at Mr. Barnum's great entertainment on Madison avenue this evenin[illegible] [illegible] among [illegible] officials Monday morning appeared in the new uniform, the advantage of which was clearly apparent in the ready obedience given by the new arrivals to every direction, whereas in former times the immigrants seemed to doubt the authority of those who gave them directions, and often disregarded them.

"Why do you set your cup of coffee on the chair, Mr. Jones?" said a worthy landlady one morning at breakfast. "It is so very weak, madam, I thaught I wuuld let it rest."

"Does one woman in fifty fill the lower half of her lungs with air?" is the stern inquiry of a sanitary exchange. The editor of that paper never heard the voice of an infuirated mother-in-law.

oct 29 EVANS & VONGLAHN.

To the friends of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society:

Your officers have labored dilligently to make the next Fair a success, such as is worthy the great city of Wilmington and the county which sustains it. They have perfected all the arrangements and now alone need the hearty co-operation of those desiring a success. They now appeal to the citizens of the city to come forward and do their duty. We admit that the financial crisis has dampened the ardor of those from whom the Association expected aid. But we ask the question: Has it really injured any? There have been no failures; we are all worse frightened than hurt. Then come forward like men and do your duty. Officers can't do everything without the aid of those really interested. Those men who have the reputation of their city at heart; those men who will really derive pecuniary advantage from the annual collection of a vast concourse of people, each man leaving in the city from $10 to $100. Let those who reap the profit come forward like liberal men and contribute to its success. Deal fairly, and if benefitted do not underrate the advantage of the Fair to the city, in order that you may conceal from the world how much you may really profit by it. Let the croakers and the despondent, the over-ambitious and wilfully obstinate close their mouths for the time. Say a good word, and not be ever ready to complain of the management. Activity in managers is a very good thing, yet it requires a little liberality on the part of the wealthy, influential, the business men—running through all the various departments of city and commercial life. The commission merchant, the wholesale and retail merchant, the railroad man, the hotel and saloon keeper, the butcher, [illegible] the artist, the banker, in [illegible] every one interested in the [illegible] city should come forward [illegible] tribute but a pittance [illegible] enterprise. And [illegible] upon the newspapers [illegible] the city and district to lend [illegible] to the enterprise. They have ever been liberal and public-spirited, and when they know and understand the difficulties of the management they will not be ready to blame. The State Fair was a success, but it was at an expenditure of $40,000.

The management only asks that those most interested shall contribute to make up such purses as may be within their means. It would ask of the Commission merchants to make up one, of the retail merchants one, of the rail road men one, of the turpentine buyers and distillers one, of the mill men and timber buyers one, of the cotton factors one, of the butchers one, of the hotel keepers one, saloon keepers one, and thus encourage the best horses to be brought to the fair. These need not be large in any instance, yet the producer will in a measure judge of the liberality of each by its encouragement of that holiday sport to which the city has invited the country.

Our premium list will be liberally provided for. The country has given evidence that the approaching fair will be the largest and most successful that we have yet held. As Christmas approaches the holiday will be kept in that spirit in which neighbor should meet neighbor on an high and festive occasion. With a spirit of generous rivalry the farmer will meet the farmer and vie with him in exhibiting specimens of those things which go to make up the wealth of the land. Here, too, fair hands will exhibit the work which will refine the rough nature of the beholder, while it will adorn the Floral department of the annual exhibtion. Here will the sturdy farmer exhibit his stock and while it is beheld and admired will his heart glow with pride as enconium after enconium is bestowed upon his care, his thrift and his possession. All will be one grand, one gay, one festive scene, made up from the energy and wealth of the sons of toil and beautified by the hand of art. Fostered and encouraged by the hand of commerce and adorned and made lovely by the bright eyes, smiling faces and fair presence of lovely woman.

Let no croaker endeavor to throw a damper upon the coming Fair. But, as friends, let all come forward and act their parts well and the Fair must be a success.

OTTO SCHUTZE,
Observer, U. S A.

MR. CHARLES MARCUS has opened a lager beer saloon in the store recently vacated by Mr. Runge.

THE Township School Committee of Wilmington Township, on Tuesday elected Silas N. Martin, chairman.

LOST, on Sunday night last, on Third street, between St. John's Church and Dock street, a Lady's Gold Breastpin. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office.

BEATTY'S BRIDGE is to have a draw at the joint expense of the citizens of the neighborhood and New Hanover county.

ONE case to the judicial attention of the Mayor this morning. The defendant not being ready for trial, it was continued until to-morrow.

THE LARGEST AND CHAPEST STOCK ever brought to this market is to be found at H. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

THE Wilmington School Committee have purchased the Williston School House on Seventh street, for the use of the colored free schools at a cost of $3,000.

IN this progressive age, it is considered plebian to call a hound, a hound, as they were called in the good old days of our forefathers, but are termed "city serenaders" by fanciers.

THE PLACE to save twenty-five per cent. is to buy your Clothing, Shoes, Dry Goods, &c., at
S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,

GOV. CALDWELL has directed a special term of the Superior Court to be held in New Hanover county to commence December 29th, 1873. It is probable that His Honor Judge W. A. Moore will be appointed to hold the Court.

THE American Missionary Association, of New York, from whom the School Committee of Wilmington has purchased the Williston School House, have kindly donated for the purpose of fitting up said school house the sum of $500. The City School Committee at its meeting on Tuesday voted their thanks for the donation.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—Your attention is called to the great bargains of Fall and Winter Goods at

THERE will be a meeting of the Cape Fear Equal Rights Association at City Hall on Monday evening next, at half-past seven o'clock, to elect delegates to the Civil Rights Convention, to convene at Raleigh on November 25th, 1873.

The friends of Civil Rights, and all members of the Club, are invited to be present,

GEO. L. MADSON, President.
R. H. LEAK, Sec'y.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 106½.

— How about the Water Works?

— The Tremaine's are coming,—"So gla—ad."

— Small savings should go into the Savings Bank.

— How about that tax list? Are the taxes all paid?

— Four unfortunates to go to the Penitentiary this week.

— The crop of deeds for the month of October was unusually light.

— Maj. D. G. MacRae, of Fayetteville was in the city yesterday.

— The week is more than half gone and hardly nothing accomplished.

— Hunting is now the correct thing. Lots of duck, etc., are being killed.

— What is sweeter than the unrestrained laugh of a child? Two laughs.

— Who is the next public spirited man to procure the Schillinger pavement?

— The Work House convicts went out yesterday, and the jail will soon be more quiet.

— The screens in the windows of the Bank of New Hanover building are very handsome.

— The Reactionary lister has performed, under proper direction, some most wonderful cures.

— The river is very low, and steamers experience some difficulty between the city and Fayetteville.

— Harbor looks lively, lots of vessels in port, and the flags of many nations float over the Cape Fear.

— Merchants who are anxious to sell for cash should advertise. Cash buyers generally look in the papers.

— Heinsberger has sold the sweet little organ used at the Masonic concert. We hated to see it go.

— Yesterday was a fine promenade day. Many little carriages with their white capped juvenile inmates were on parade.

— The Board of the County Commissioners have had a very laborious time this week, auditing tickets and claims. They will not be through for several days.

— We saw a man deposit over nine thousand dollars yesterday in Bank. We are glad some folks have money, and also, confidence in our institutions. We have much of the latter but alas, not much of the former.

— The Tremaines have a new lithographic bill which gives remarkably fine portraits of Geo. Pierson the basso profundo and Mr. W. B. Tremaine, who is one of the best accompanyists we ever met. Long life to them both, say we.

WANTED—A good washer woman; at this office.

A young man at a musical party being told to "bring out the old lyre," trotted out his mother-in-law.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON, a little boy had his foot badly mashed by a dray wheel running over it. The little fellow had been riding on the front part of the dray, and attempted to jump from it while in motion, and in so doing he fell, the wheel passing over his foot.

MR. J. H. ALLAN, who has recently opened a jewelry establishment on Front street, one door below the Hotels, has a clock, thermometer and barometer combined, which was brought from London a short time since by a gentleman of this city. It is a curiosity in itself, and the most convenient piece of mechanism we have ever seen.

UNITED STATES COURT was employed all the morning in the adjudication of bankrupt cases, which were continued from the last session of the Court. The sentence of Wm. Woodbury, convicted of robbing the United States mail, has not yet been rendered by his Honor, but will in all probability be done this afternoon.

— The bale of cotton, which is and has been on its travels in aid of the sufferers from yellow fever in Memphis, arrived Monday in the city of New York. It is understood that the bale realized $1,500 in Memphis $90 in St. Louis, and $2,030 in Cincinnati. At first it was a matter of conjecture what should be done with it in New-York, but finally it was decided to appoint Messrs J. W. McCulloch, J. M. Requa, and F. W. Albert, a committee of three to dispose of it. The plan adopted is to solicit during the remainder of the week $1 subscriptions, and then decide in some manner which of the subscribers shall be the possessor of the bale. It is thus expected that a respectable sum of money can be raised in addition to the $1,220 already sent on from the Produce Exchange. The winner will then send the bale to Boston for similar disposition, before finally shipping it to England.

STATE ITEMS.

Charlotte wants a Union Depot for her many railroads.

A new cotton factory is about being put in operation in Rutherford county.

The Carolina Central Railroad between Buffalo and Charlotte is in splendid order.

Rutherfordton finds amusement these cool Fall nights in corn shucking and possum hunting.

One acre of Rutherford county land produced three hundred bushels of sweet potatoes.

Forty-two miles in four hours is the fast time made on the A. T. & O. Railroad between Statesville and Charlotte.

— It is related of a former member of the Missouri Legislature, whose reputation was far from spotless, that he absented himself for a while under the plea of sickness, and shortly after had his death announced. Thereupon the Legislature passed the usual resolutions of condolence, some of the wily member's bitterest enemies eulogized their "departed friend's exalted character and high moral worth," and the next day he reappeared in his seat with the resolutions and eulogies neatly pasted in his memorandum book as a receipt in full for the past and a letter of credit for the future.

The following particulars of the capture of Virginius has been received from Santiago: The Tornado which had been searching for the Virginius since her attempted landing at South Coast Island, came in sight of her at 2:30 P. M. on the 31st, and immediately gave chase. The "fillibuster" put on all steam and made for Jamaica, hoping to find refuge in British waters. In her flight she threw overboard several horses and used a portion of the cargo for fuel, but the Tornado caught up with her at 10 P. M. near the Jamaica coast, and she surrendered with all on board, not one of whom escaped. Among the prisoners are the well known insurgent Chief Bembetta, who was reported killed a few days ago, a brother of Cespedes, son of Anasda, son of Jesus Del Sol, and other important personages. The prisoners have all been brought before a competent tribunal. Santiago is now being tried as a pirate. There is great rejoicing in Havana. The streets and houses are decorated with the national colors. Subscriptions are being raised for testimonial to officers and crew of the Tornado.

WEEKLY REVIEW —OF THE—
WILMINGTON MARKETS.

Financial affairs are slowly working into better shape, but we are unable to record much improvement in the commercial situation. Confidence, which received so rude a shock last week by the failure of two or three large northern firms is still more or less impaired, and until it has been fully restored it is vain to hope for a revival of trade. Business men are quite generally disinclined to enter upon new engagements beyond actual requirements, and with stocks of naval stores accumulating, prices for the most part show a gradual shrinkage.

The New York Herald of a recent date says: "The commercial situation was decidedly gloomy during the whole of the week just closed, and disaster succeeded disaster in rapid succession in the shape of suspensions of some of the largest and stanchest mercantile firms, who had become embarrassed by the difficulty of obtaining money with which to carry on their business operations from week to week, even by payment of high rates of interest, and when their assets exceeded their liabilities by many hundreds of thousands of dollars. But these are times when the strong are effected equally with the weak, and the larger the firms, and the more extended their ramifications, the sooner and apparently the more severely do they feel the pressure. The apprehensions which have been entertained all along back, that the worst of the panic did not pass off with the score of failures in Wall street has unfortunately been verified by the experiences of the past week."

And again, at a later date, it says:—"The accelerated movement in general merchandise noticed at the close of last week continued to-day, though not quite so active, and there was a consequent feeling of relief in the markets, and an apparently better grounded hope than there has been along back that the merchants generally, having learned wisdom from experience, have prepared themselves to weather the storm, and that the worst is now past. The hope that was entertained at the beginning of the troubles that this would prove to be only a stock panic and that it would not extend to commercial affairs having proved fallacious, the mercantile community have seemingly determined to do all that can de done to avert disaster. The fall trade has been greatly retarded and curtailed, while there has been a general shrinkage of values; but it is now hoped that the decline has been arrested, and that every succeeding day will witness an improvement in the commercial situation, though it will probably be some time before there will be any general activity."

The question with every one now is, or should be, how to tide over the present difficulties; and it cannot be doubted that prompt settlements, whenever and wherever possible, will contribute very materially to that end. Although, as before remarked, the financial situation has materially improved, there is still more or less of embarrassment in commercial circles, consequent on small sales, high rates of interest, the difficulty in making collections, and the still greater difficulty in borrowing money to meet maturing obligations.

CRUDE TURPENTINE—The market for this article has ruled steady during the entire week, and has experienced no change in price. Inspectors have placed their receipts without trouble at $2 for hard, $2 40 for virgin, and $3 for yellow dip. The receipts and sales for the week foot up 1,068 barrels, against 802 barrels for last week.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE—This market opened at a decline of ½ cent from the closing quotation (38½ cents) of our last week's review, and declined one-half cent daily until Wednesday, when the market closed quiet at 36½ cents bid.—The receipts are 1,906 casks, against 1,770 casks for last week. The sales are 524 casks, showing a falling off of 745 casks.

ROSIN—The market for this article has been unsettled during the entire week, and has declined daily since the opening of our review. Friday the market for strained declined 5 cents from Thursday's quotation. On Saturday a further decline of 10 cents was effected. Monday the undertone of the market showed further signs of weakness, and on Tuesday it declined 5 cents, and on Wednesday it again declined, closing quiet at $2 40. The receipts for the week foot up 11,302 bbls., against 10,421 bbls. for last week. To-day (Thursday) the market is quiet and weak, and sales of 500 bbls. have been affected at a decline of 10 cents.

TAR—Opened firm at $2 25, the closing quotation of last week's review, and on Saturday the market evinced a very firm feeling, but was not quotably higher. Monday, under large offerings and a light demand, it declined 25 cents, and has since ruled steady at $2. The receipts are 525 bbls., against 308 bbls. for last week.

COTTON—The market since our last has been depressed, and a further decline of ½ to ¾ cent for the week is noted. The receipts for the week foot up 1,360 bales against 1,458 of last week. To-day the market is unsettled, sales early this morning at 12½ cents for low middling, and sales in the day at 12 cents for low middling.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,

BY MAIL,

COMMERCIAL

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,

AGRICULTURAL,

MECHANICAL, or

COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.
